“Great research has no borders. The Gairdners ...Canada’s only major international scientific prize, inspire medical research, present and future. They are ours, but they belong to the world.”

About the Gairdner Foundation

The Gairdner Foundation was established in 1957 with the goal of recognizing and rewarding international excellence in fundamental research that impacts human health. Annually, seven awards are given: five Canada Gairdner International Awards for biomedical research, one John Dirks Canada Gairdner Global Health Award, specifically for impact on global health issues, and one Canada Gairdner Wightman Award, reserved for a Canadian. More than 350 awards in 30 countries have been bestowed and of those awardees, 84 have gone on to receive Nobel Prizes.

About Research Canada: An Alliance for Health Discovery

Research Canada is a national, broad-based alliance dedicated to increasing investments in health research through collaborative advocacy. We believe health research is a shared benefit, shared responsibility and an investment in Canada’s future. We engage government, academia, industry and non-profit sectors to build support for balanced and long-term health research funding - investments that strengthen Canada’s innovation system and lead to better health, sustainable health care, new commercialization opportunities, and skilled jobs for Canadians.
