The 42nd Parliament's new Health Research Caucus

Welcome Reception

On March 7, 2016, Research Canada welcomed new and returning Members of Parliament to a Welcome Reception hosted by the Honourable Jane Philpott, Minister of Health. Minister Philpott announced the 42nd Parliament's new Health Research Caucus, and Parliamentarians were introduced to dedicated leaders in the health research and health innovation fields.

Research Canada is delighted to announce that Mr. John Oliver, MP, Oakville, Liberal Party of Canada, is the new Health Research Caucus Chair. We are so pleased that Senator Kelvin K. Ogilvie, Past Chair, Nova Scotia, Conservative Party of Canada, will continue to serve along with Ms. Carol Hughes, MP Algoma—Manitoulin— Kapuskasing who served as Caucus Vice-Chair in the 41st Parliament will continue to serve as the NDP Representative.

Health Research Caucus Events

The Parliamentary Health Research Caucus brings together Parliamentarians, health researchers and health innovators through a number of events and initiatives during the year. These include kiosk receptions and luncheons on the Hill where Parliamentarians can learn more about the social and economic benefits of Canadian health research and health innovation by interacting directly with researchers, innovators and patients. Research Canada also provides Parliamentarians with other resources and organizes research institute visits.

Upcoming Health Research Caucus Events:

- Paediatric Research and Child Health in Canada May 9, 2016
- Frailty Among the Aged in Canada October 24th, 2016

(Topics and dates for Health Research Caucus Luncheon events will follow.)
